

International Affairs Seminar 2017

WHO IS MY NEIGHBOR?

Interfaith Dialogue is a Christian Practice

March 10-18

What is IAS?

International Affairs Seminar is a study trip for youth in grades 11-12. It is an opportunity to experience Washington DC and New York City, study of a topic that is relevant to being a citizen and a person that claims Christian faith, and create friendships with Disciples youth.

Youth return from IAS with an informed perspective on the study topic and a life experience that can help shape their view of the world and their practice of Christianity.

Cost: $1850.00 per person and includes ground transportation, plane tickets, train ticket, housing, 3 meals a day, luggage fee, theatre tickets, entrance fees, and seminar fee.

$250 Non-Refundable Deposit Due with registration to hold your spot.

Registration Opens Aug. 1 Online [okdisciples.org]

Registration Closes Oct. 1

Trip limited to 25 youth

Sample Itinerary

March 10: Travel Day: Depart Early Morning for flight to Washington DC, Settle into housing and orientation to the trip.

March 11: Museums, Arlington Cemetery, Lincoln Memorial, Korean War Memorial, MLK Memorial, FDR Memorial

March 12: National City CC Worship, Holocaust Museum, Vietnam War Memorial, Memorials at Night

March 13: Seminar Day

March 14: Capitol Tour, Meet Congressional Rep, Seminar Wrap, Kennedy Center: Shear Madness

March 15: Train Trip to New York, Settle Into Housing, Orientation to NY, Broadway Show

March 16: Seminar Day, Broadway Show

March 17: 9/11 Museum & Memorial, Free Afternoon in NY

March 18: Travel Day Home

Sponsored by CYA Ministries of the Christian Church in Oklahoma

Contact Rev. Michael Davison for more information.

mdavison@okdisciples.org / 918.899.8940