

Remember these phones?

Today, most are consigned to flea markets, antique shops, and attics.

So, why are we still employing the same church fundraising methods as when we used these phones?

The Kansas-Oklahoma Conference UCC, Fellowship Congregational UCC, Phillips Theological Seminary, and the Christian Church in Oklahoma, in partnership with the Lake Institute on Faith & Giving, invite a team from your congregation to participate in a seminar that could change the way your church approaches giving and generosity.

Cultivating Generous Congregations

How do you inspire generosity?

February 8 & 9, 2019

Fellowship Congregational United Church of Christ

2900 South Harvard

Tulsa, OK

Cultivating Generous Congregations is a two-day interactive seminar demonstrating how pastors and ministry leaders can unearth and energize congregational generosity by exploring the significant and necessary steps to create lasting cultural change within a congregation.

The course is intended for those who:

- Believe in their congregation's capacity for greater generosity
- Have a desire to become more comfortable talking about money
- Are willing to redefine giving in your congregation
- Understand giving to include service, social networks, and sharing of ideas and professional expertise

UCC Congregations in Kansas and Oklahoma are encouraged to send a team of 3-4 individuals, including pastoral staff, to the seminar. The cost per person is $90 which covers the seminar workbook, and breakfast on Saturday and lunch both days.

Registration closes Friday, January 18, 2019 EXTENDED TO January 25, 2019

Facilitators: Lake Institute on Faith & Giving: Wendy McCormick
UCC Office of Marketing & Philanthropy: Rev. Andrew DeBraber, Major Gift Officer
